Complete the following sentences with the words in the box below. Be sure to modify the tense if appropriate:

2. Smith (2003) ___________________________ poor food, bad housing, inadequate hygiene and large families as the major causes of infant mortality.

5. Smith (2003) ___________________________ the psychological contract as an unwritten agreement between the employer and the employee.

7. __________________________ Smith (2003), English food is the best.

9. In his major study, Smith (2003) __________________________ data from students of 15 nationalities and concluded that English food was the most popular.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Propose</th>
<th>Identify</th>
<th>According to</th>
<th>Analyse</th>
<th>List</th>
<th>Draw our attention</th>
<th>Trace</th>
<th>Conclude</th>
<th>Define</th>
<th>Discuss</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Answers:

1. Smith (2003) identified three reasons why English food is so popular.

2. Smith (2003) listed poor food, bad housing, inadequate hygiene and large families as the major causes of infant mortality.

3. Smith (2003) drew our attention to the fact that English food is the best.

5. Smith (2003) defined the psychological contract as an unwritten agreement between the employer and the employee.

7. According to Smith (2003), English food is the best.

8. Smith (2003) concluded that English food is the best.

9. In his major study, Smith (2003) analysed data from students of 15 nationalities and concluded that English food was the most popular.